Now that I am a Shining Light, I feel like a leader and feel more confident.

I'm proud that everyone in Holy Spirit follows our Code of Conduct.

I hope to make our school even better by listening to people and encouraging good behaviour.

I am proud that I took the opportunity I was given and became a Shining Light. By highlighting and speaking up for pupils, I will try my hardest to help them with any struggles.

I love the different techniques we use when we learn and I look forward to carrying out my duties as a Shining Light.

I am happy to be a Shining Light and I am proud of myself and all of the other Shining Lights.

I will help other children with their work and will try to make our school even better by helping everyone to be happy.

I hope we have hot chocolate in our meetings!

I am excited and happy to be a Shining Light. I am looking forward to talking to Mrs Forrest about the ideas our class have.

I am proud of our Power Maths lessons and I love learning my Times tables.

Arthur Y6

I am glad I got the opportunity to become a Shining Light.

I'm proud of how far Holy Spirit has come; it's a very friendly environment.

I will be the face of my class and make Holy Spirit even better than it is now.

Meet the Holy Spirit Shining Lights
